

Environmental Studies Major Worksheet

Name:

ID:

Other Majors/Minors:

Class:

TERM

Prerequisites (Please check one from each category)

Math 3	Math 10	ENVS 10	or equivalent statistics course:
Chem 5	Phys 3	Biol 16	Ears 1 or equivalent LAB course:
Econ 1	Econ 2

REQUIREMENTS (10 total courses)

Introductory Courses (both required)

ENVS 2 (Introduction to Environmental Science) or the equivalent

It is possible to substitute other course combinations for ENVS 2 on a two-for-one basis. The following may be combined with Biology 16: EARS 1, 6, or ENVS 12. If BIOL 16 is taken as a partial substitute for ENVS 2, it may not be used as a prerequisite

Two-for one Course:

Term:

Two-for one Course:

Term:

ENVS 3 (Environment and Society)

Possible two-for-one substitutions for ENVS 3 could be ENVS policy courses if not used elsewhere on the worksheet and GOVT 5 or PBPL 5.

Two-for one Course:

Term:

Two-for one Course:

Term:

Core Courses

Course availability varies - please check course listing at <https://envs.dartmouth.edu/undergraduate/courses> before completing.

(Please choose three, including at least one from each of the two groups.) Natural Sciences for Environmental Governance

ENVS 20 (Conservation of Biodiversity)

ENVS 22 (Coupled Human-Natural Sysys)

ENVS 23 (Arctic Environmental Change)

ENVS 25 (Agroecology)

ENVS 31 (Forest Ecology & Management)

ENVS 80.23 (Soils and Society)

Social Sciences for Environmental Governance

ENVS 55 (Ecological Economics)

ENVS 56 (Pol Econ of US Env Plcy)

ENVS 61 (Community, Society, & Commons)

ENVS 65 (Global Environmental Politics)

ENVS 67 (Political Ecology)

ENVS 80.14 (Environmental Communication)

Critical Issues in Environmental Studies (Please choose one)

These courses employ interdisciplinary approaches—integrating aspects of the natural sciences, social sciences and humanities—to understand historical and contemporary environmental problems

ENVS 12 (Energy and the Environment)

ENVS 14 (Sustainable Food Systems)

ENVS 15 (Earth's Cold Regions)

ENVS 17 (Marine Policy)

ENVS 18 (Indigenous Env Studies)

ENVS 28 (Global Environmental Health)

ENVS 80.18 (Control of Nature)

ENVS 80.19 (Resource Ext & Indigenous

Led Solutions)

Elective Focus Courses

Three related and relevant non-introductory (i.e., 10 or above) courses, at least one from ENVS. Courses from outside the ENVS Program may be used with permission of an ENVS Major Advisor.

Course # and title:

Course # and title:

Course # and title:

Elective Focus Rationale Please provide a short paragraph explaining the rationale for elective focus courses and how they fulfill your goals for the Major.

Culminating Experience

ENVS 50 (Environmental Problem Analysis), or ENVS 91 (Thesis Research)

ENVS 84 (Env Issues of Southern Africa),

Notes

Advisor Signature

Date

Updated 8/28/26